Prophecy for Denmark – april 2015

Dane, you are at a loss, unsure and without truth - rootlessness and restlessness characterize your country, there is no peace in the nation. All this does not come from ME.

You have no direction, no truth. Everyone is his/her own God but you are not divine and you have neither got the wisdom nor the shoulders to carry that cape.

You live in a land of depravity. You are rotten, you stink (One of us had a vision of people with snakes coming out of their mouths).

I am crying when I overview Denmark. It is like a pest. Lawlessness is continuing. People abuse people, it is outraged, - everyone seeks his/her own. But be aware: Pride comes before a fall.

My sword will cleave marrow from bone and mind from spirit. You think you are in control, you are not!

Satan is pulling your strings. (One of us had a vision about mayonettes)

Love has gone cold, you love what you desire, but you are unwilling to give.

Love is to give!

Unemployment is increasing, but that is only in the statistics.

Power and manipulation are among the leaders of this country.

Everybody lies for their own benefit. They rule no longer for the good of the people, but for their own profit.

The government of Denmark is led by the wrong spirit. The people is hooked by the darkness – leaders as well as the common folk. Only a few people know how to distinguish between good and evil. The evil is called good and the good is laughed at. You stand in front of disaster, evil threatens.

I distance myself from management and control – as well as humanism which roam your country. Darker times are waiting for you ahead.

Give up and let Me take over.

Denmark, you have gone blind, but without noticing. Experts have stolen the key of wisdom, while you have nothing to give in return.

Dane, remember your descent and from whom you were granted the Earth and the Life!

I, The Lord, your God, will turn things around.

My Spirit is coming to your country. The lawless will fall with remorse when My Spirit hits. I shine brighter than the sun. My holiness is purer than snow.

Denmark, you are a disobedient people. I cleanse. This country needs change and it will come with My Spirit. There is an overflow of thistles in your country, I will rebuild your country. I wish that you will belong to me and not the world and its leader (Satan). I wish to see you fulfilled through Me.

Time will rush in your country, much will turn around. The things you build with your own hands will suddenly and without warning fall to the ground. That which seems safe will turn unsafe. Danes cannot/dare not trust their own judgement. Self-guidance will turn to shame. It has already begun little by little, but soon everyone will quiver. Nothing will be as before.

Change happens from My Spirit, says The Lord. I control who I want and what I want. The finance world will once again quiver on the ground. Wisdom and intelligence will no longer be of use. My wisdom will fix what fell. But only a few in Denmark seems to be needing Me.

I am awaiting your surrendering to Me, turn to Me. I cry when you cry. Turn to Me, turn to your true God. Come home! Let Me be Lord in your lives, let Me be your role model and let Me carry your burdens. Let Me show you the truth, the way and the life. Cause then everything will succeed – not in your own way; but in My way. Remember, I only have plans of happiness for you.

Seek out the Christians, let them lead you to Me and you will experience signs, wonders and miracles. Look forward with joy, I create everything new. I am the God of abundance.

To the Christians.

Soon everything will come: My hand is above Denmark, this country belongs to Me and all darkness will get swept away.

Soon more congregations will be made; created by My hand. This is where you will find Me and experience My presence as pleasant. Those congregations will grow, others will fall to pride.

Prayer is important.

Are you responsible for your country? Are you praying for your country?

Your country is in the hands of Satan. I want repentance. Pray for your country and that My will must happen to your nation. My will is happiness, but repentance is needed.

Purify the spiritual space above Copenhagen. Make room for Me, you can do this with prayer.

In April the Christians prayers are not only important; but necessary – as a preparation for what will happen later. People, who have My blessing, is on their way to your capital. I want you to lead them.

(Feeling: that God will show his glory in May or in the upcoming time. That it depends on us, if we are ready, willing to go with Him.)

Repentance

I have told you before and I say it once more now: Everything that does not come from My hand will fall. So ask yourselves: Do you live by My will or do you live in this world, as if it is everlasting?

Repent yourselves from willfulness, selfishness, bondage and condemnation.

Reach for Me in the fog. I await my people. In the fog lies My presence – My blessings.

Let yourselves be changed by Me. You quarrel in the flesh. Let My life changing Spirit take place in your hearts = happiness and clarity. I want idolatry out of the congregations. I create everything new. Follow Me.

Trust Me. Stand against willfulness. Let yourselves get build up by Me. Do no more your own deeds.

My people, I need your hands and I need your prayers. Praise Me for what My words promise in Esaias. I will lead you from bondage to glory. Praise Me for My love and grace. Remember, My grace is enough.

To the responsive hearts.

In My people I have pleasure.

I will put My law in your hearts, My words shall fill your mouths and My blessings shall be with you. What you touch shall be blessed by Me. You are few, but you have so many seeds and they will sprout in this spring. Many will seek Me through you.

I move now. Those who seek Me will feel Me touching their hearts. I am the one who change all. I seek true servants/true friends, who will stand with Me in the time of change that comes.

Fear not, but trust only Me. You will see that I am with you. I will protect you, do not be afraid. Be brave, because I am with you.

April will show change in the exterior – March was an inner changing time, which is not yet over – soon I will fulfill what I started.

My people are my warriors on this earth. I long for responsive hearts.
