

Prophecy for Denmark – marts 2015

Chaos and still, - this is the quiet before the storm.

The Danish people have expressed their love for the system.

A lot of rebellion waits ahead. It will be more and more difficult to handle things on our own without the power of God. Nothing will work out as it used to – and resistance will be met everywhere. Pride comes before a fall. You are selved-willed and money-grubbing. Where is your humanity? Where are all the values that Jesus hung on the cross for. How can you believe in progress when you are only thinking of yourselves? Have you turned your back on ME? Several of your churches have done just that.

Where is God? Yes, is He in your plans for the future at all?

What is happening? God – the creator of all things – has begun to make demands on you. MY will and MY hope for the country lie ahead. Fire will burn up everything that does not come from ME. I am love and My son Jesus Christ showed you the way.

You are a godless people. A messed-up nation. You lack respect. You speak in two tongues. Nothing is holy for you. You do not even trust in yourselves. You do not know what to believe in anymore. You fumble in blindness and seek to and fro. You are sick, you are nasty. You are depraved – a seduced people. How much more can you cope with? Your economy is balancing on a knife 's edge.

My spirit is upon your country, says the Lord. My kingdom will come upon Denmark. I will begin to take effect in receptive hearts. Not everyone will like the pressure that the spirit will put upon them regarding conversion. Rebellion, anger, hate and bitterness will break through as grass that has just been planted.

But Denmark, I will divide the waters and there will be a great distinction between those who carry ME in their heart and those who do not. My grace and blessings will come upon My people. I will bless those of you greatly who are willing to pick up and carry your cross and follow Me.

Turn away from your own plans and realise that only together with Me, your efforts will pay off. Your own plans will bear poor fruit – or none. People will begin to understand why it is important to stand together and learn from the mistakes of the past. Everything depends on your faith in the good, the good that I wish to put into man.

Your country is in a state of alert now, but no one is able to predict what is going to happen. You have only seen the beginning of things. I am letting this happen and it is not over yet. Dark clouds are drawn over Denmark. Your core values will be shaken.

Churches will fall and new ones will rise. Pray for the oldest in your churches.

Pray for the royal family.

Your government will fall apart. Pray for your government and pray for Me to bless them. By My hand there will be a change.

Pray for stability in Europe. Pray for the leaders of the European countries.

From now on, I will tidy up. I will reveal the whole context now for the people.

You can look forward - I will make new things happen in Denmark. Revival will come from above = high voltage.

One of us had a sight; "A great light over Copenhagen."
A few people have converted to Me / they have seen My light.
More people will follow and they will show the way to My kingdom.

It will be bad for those who are not with Me.

To the Christians;

I am pleased with you, but there is still a lot of willfulness among you.

Be prepared and listen to My words. Open your hearts for Me.
I will release new life over the people who longs for Me – I long to release new life. You will see My glory.
Do not look back, stop seeking security in the world, but keep your focus on Me. You will be able to reach out for My great love.

Do not let yourselves be infected by the world, do not let your foot wobble, but stand firm on My word. I have only wishes of happiness for you!

When time comes, I will tidy up in Denmark. I will deploy and dispose until My WORD is the spoken word. My signs will begin to manifest and blessings will flow. More and more people will seek My house – not all though – but many more than now, yes many times the double of now.

Those who do not want ME, will try to destroy My doings, but stand firm on My word and remember that I have overcome all darkness. Yes, even death.

There will be conflicts in between friends, family, couples and colleges.

There will be conflicts across religions and believes. Some will fight with flesh and blood, as you have already experienced.

But you My children, - do not let one rotten word come out of your mouths. The power of prayer will work through you. Pray in unity and thank Me for letting My kingdom come to you.

Remember that when I am for you, nothing can be against you.

My entry in the country: My love will carry you. My peace will be with you.
